

Beth Armknecht Miller Receives the Vistage Chair Excellence Award

Annual honor bestowed upon Vistage chairs who excel across multiple criteria, including group member retention and member referrals

April 9, 2015 (Atlanta, GA) – Executive Velocity, a leadership development assessment and talent management advisory firm for fast-growing small and mid-sized companies, announces CEO and founder, Beth Armknecht Miller, received the Vistage Chair Excellence Award from Vistage International for her work as a Vistage Chair during 2014. She was one of four Atlanta chairs to receive this recognition.

Vistage Chair Excellence Award winners excelled across multiple criteria to qualify for the award. Among these were their group size, retention rate, and number of candidate referrals. Armknecht Miller has served in the organization for nine years.

“I was very honored to be recognized by one of the most prestigious global communities for CEOs and executives,” said Armknecht Miller. “As a Vistage chair, I get a unique opportunity to work collaboratively with a variety of gifted leaders. It is a very rewarding experience and I look forward to continuing to serve in this capacity in the future.”

In addition to Armknecht Miller’s work with Vistage International, her expertise on leadership development and talent management topics has been featured in HR.com, Entrepreneur.com, About.com, SunTrust Small Business, Smartbriefs Leadership, TalentCulture, and more. She released her first book, “Are You Talent Obsessed?” last year and it is currently available on Amazon.com.

About Executive Velocity

Executive Velocity is a leadership development and talent management advisory firm committed to ensuring the success of fast growing and mid-size companies. We’re committed to accelerating the growth of businesses by shaping and enhancing their leadership and talent management capacity. Services offered include strategic workforce planning, leadership development, talent management and team building. Visit us online, read our blog or follow us on Twitter.